Our Excellence is Intentional.....

PARENT COVENANT STATEMENT: (2020-2021)

Jessie R. Wagner Seventh-day Adventist Elementary School recognizes the partnership with its parents in the education it provides to each student. Parents who are committed to the school program are as asset to our outgoing vision. The following covenant statement affirms your commitment to work together with the school and its faculty to provide a quality Christian education for your child.

As a part of the Jessie R. Wagner Seventh-day Adventist Elementary School community, we consent to supporting our children and the school in the following ways:

1. By praying regularly for the school and its programs.
2. By meeting our financial obligations for tuition and fees. We understand the need to pay promptly so the school can operate as efficiently as possible.
3. By support of our children in the classroom, by attendance at parent/teacher conference, by encouragement of a disciplined study time at home and by communication with teachers and administration about student/home concerns which might have an impact on classroom performance. We will encourage our children to take full advantage of the learning process.
4. By actively participating in the school's fundraising events by volunteering to work, by donating items as requesting and by encouraging friends and neighbors to enjoy the events.
